

KWAČIL YOUTH PROGRAM

→ K^Wačil: “sunrise” or “daybreak” (Lushootseed)

NOW ENROLLING FOR 2017-18

Children must be in 1st-5th grade, attend Seattle Public Schools, and self-identify as American Indian or Alaska Native to participate.*

Every family receives:

- School supplies and education incentives
- Monthly organic food bags
- School advocacy with special education, truancy and discipline
- Reading and Math Camps
- Cultural field trips
- Referrals for housing, food, medical, mental health and other resources

Our goal is to foster a generation of kids full of compassion, determination and generosity by focusing as much on children’s social and emotional development as we do their academics.

At Seattle Indian Health Board, your child will be treated as a whole person as we encourage balance and wellness physically, spiritually, mentally and emotionally.
